Biography

AI integration isn't about replacing human intelligence; it's about enhancing your authentic business voice.

Marline Paul is a Technology Integration Expert and creator of the transformative 3T Framework: Transform, Train, and Tool Up. With 17+ years bridging education and innovation, she helps organizations confidently navigate the AI revolution while maintaining their authentic voice.

As founder of Enilram Creative Solutions, Marline has guided 1,600+ entrepreneurs through the Nasdaq Entrepreneurial Center's programs and now leads the 3T Leaders Community, providing strategic technology implementation guidance nationwide.

A dynamic speaker at University of Central Florida on "Digital Marketing & AI" and the SCORE Broward Expo, Marline brings a unique perspective as a certified business coach and graduate of the Goldman Sachs One Million Black Women: Black in Business program.

Her woman-owned, military spouse-owned business specializes in ethical AI implementation for universities, government contractors, and organizations seeking to move from technology confusion to confidence.

Educate. Equip. Empower. Excel in the Digital Age.
